Anger Complex

Aeveron

you have broken my very confidence.
now I'm cast out, depraved, a hallow shell.
You have raped my innocence and thus turned my life into a living hell.You have raped my innocence and thus turned my life into a living hell.You have infiltrated my mind, polluted it with your shameless kind.
You have had me obey your rules and made me fell like the weakest of fools.Deep down inside I feel the urge to scream.
Revenge is boiling in my veins.
Every fiber in my body is illuminated with a deadly gleam.
I yearn for retaliation of the unbearable pains.What shall I do with my anger? ANGER!!!
Where is your weak point?
Is there a way to hurt you usefully?
Is homicide the only possible solution?You can't imagine how truly I despise your ways.
I think it's time ti turn the tables on you.
I will no longer crawl under the yoke of the olden days
but instead destroy all things you held so true.you held so fucking true!!!All these pain-ridden years I've been pondering, torturing my mind to find a suitable punishment.
Still I don't know the answer, I'm wondering if for you death would be the ultimate end.Ultimate End!!What shall I do with my anger? ANGER!!!
Where is your weak point?
Is there a way to hurt you usefully?
Is homicide the only possible solution?Shall i kill you???!!!
