Playing Cards With Judas

Sarah Slean

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Playing Cards with Judas in the lounge of our hotel
And I ask while were playing if he likes it there in hell
Judas doesnt answer, he just laughs and plays his hand
Lights another cigarette and turns toward the bandI have no missionary zeal, I say
No armies fighting sin
But Ill keep playing, Ill keep playing
Until I win"I always loved the blues" he says, from behind that grin
I stack and deal them again
Your friends have good intentions but theyre a thousand years too late
A few buildings and commandments wont save you from your fateI have no missionary zeal, I say
I dont believe in sin
But Ill keep playing, Ill keep playing
Until I win
