You've Been Merciful

Virtue

I can remember on that day
When my life almost slipped away
Though I knew, I wasn't sober, You decided it's not over
'Cause You knew my life was more than I could seeI look back upon it all
You've been merciful to me
I look back upon it all, upon it all
'Cause You've been merciful to meIt was so hard to understand
Nothing was going like I planned
I should have laid it all upon You but I took my pain out on You
But You looked beyond what was to what could beI look back upon it all
You've been merciful to meAnd while I was giving up on me
Your patience was shaping my life story
You worked a miracle I know
I don't deserveNot a moment should pass before I say
You never took Your love away
January through December, I will always remember
That the grace You gave me changed my destinyI look back upon it all
You've been merciful to me
I look back upon it all
You've been merciful to meI look back upon it all
You've been merciful to me
