

Live This Down

Papa Roach

I always thought I could trust you
But I guess that's not the case
All the years that I loved you
You were out there playing the games You didn't think that I would find out
But it was written all over the place
Is it really what you want now?
Then get the fuck out of my face How could you deceive me?
I'm begging you to leave me So go to hell
I'm better off without you
All is well
I'd rather be alone To have you, to hold you
And never know you 'cause you sold me out
You're never gonna live this down
Never gonna live this down How do you look in the mirror?
How do you stand the sight of your face?
If you made it any clearer
I could have seen right through the hate And I'll never think about you
When I'm sleeping with all of your friends
And I'm hoping that you find out
'Cause love is the sweetest revenge How could you deceive me?
I'm begging you to leave me So go to hell
I'm better off without you
All is well
I'd rather be alone To have you, to hold you
And never know you 'cause you sold me out
You're never gonna live this down
Never gonna live this down I always thought I could trust you
I always thought I could trust you, go
I always thought I could trust you
I always thought I could trust you So go to hell
I'm better off without you
All is well
I'd rather be alone To have you, to hold you
And never know you 'cause you sold me out
You're never gonna live this down
Never gonna live this down
