Castaway

Chasen

I feel destruction running hard through my veins
But I see redemption rushing my way
My victories are bittersweet and now I can tell
The only place my plans have lead me is right where I fellI'm overboard, too far from shore, castaway trying to make it home
I catch my breath to save myself but I can't
In my sight You were just in time, I feel You now, You're by my side
And I know You gave me a gift of a second chanceI had a dream of a life of my own
And I had a place that I thought was my home
But now I see I just can't have it any other way
It's all or nothing, do or die and I'm the price I pay becauseI'm overboard, too far from shore, castaway trying to make it home
I catch my breath to save myself but I can't
In my sight You were just in time, I feel You now, You're by my side
And I know You gave me a gift of a second chanceA second chanceA second chance I won't forget, a second life I won't regret
A second wind to brave this night, a second more to make it right
A second chance I won't forget, a second life I won't regret
A second wind to brave this night, a second more to make it rightI'm overboard, too far from shore, castaway trying to make it home
I catch my breath to save myself but I can't
In my sight You were just in time, I feel You now, You're by my side
And I know You gave me a gift of a second chanceA gift of a second chanceI'm a castaway
With a gift of a second chance
