Chaos In Concert

She Screams Remedy

Panic, disaster
Your heart's beating faster and you can't sleep
Breathing, convulsive
It all seems impulsive, and you're too weak
Now you're in too deep to foldOh, wouldn't it feel the same if I told you
What you try to hide will wear away the inside?
And you can feel your hands tied
Do you feel alive?
Break away the binds, free what's on the insideWhen your world stops revolving
What will you do to remedy?
And when it all comes falling
It becomes hard to disagree why you don't seeOh, wouldn't it feel the same if I told you
What you try to hide will tear away the inside?
And you can feel your hands tied
Do you feel alive?
Break away the binds, free what's on the insideThis shaking can't last much longerOh, wouldn't it feel the same if I told you
What you try to hide will tear away the inside?
And you can feel your hands tied
Do you feel alive?
Break away the binds, free what's on the inside
And oh, wouldn't it feel the same?
Wouldn't it feel the same if I told you
And now, wouldn't it feel the same?
Couldn't it feel the same if I told you?
So save yourself.
