

As you die

Assurines

Be strong, good son, another day will rise
As you die
As you dieThe formation of gangs is a sure sign of spring,
A new season approaches, please sign up for the kid,
Leave home and lead sun, prepare for the long runs.
Always hereBe strong, hold on, another day will rise
Be strong, love is gone, heart is cold as ice
As you dieProve yourself to the father, he will praise you in mind
Alarming future is traced, the contract is already signed.
Always hereBe strong, hold on, another day will rise
Be strong, love is gone, heart is cold as ice
As you die
As you die
As you dieSo long, love is gone, your heart is cold as ice
Be strong, good son, another day will rise and you have to Be strong, hold on, another day will rise.
Be strong, love is gone, heart is cold as ice
As you dieAs you die
It isn't where I'm free
Maybe another time
