Hearts That Bleed

State Of Shock

I could hear it in her voice
Telling me to make the choice
Too many broken dates
Too many, Ill be home lateShe says
I dont wanna waste my life
Hating every goddamn day awayWhen I sit back and open my eyes
I see we're living two separate lives
Like a well gone dry from all the years gone byIts hard to see through hearts that bleed
Its hard to seeShe paints pictures of her dreams
But today they dont include me
Too many mistakes Ive made
Too many times Ive betrayedShe says
I dont wanna waste my life
Hating every goddamn day awayWhen I sit back and open my eyes
I see we're living two separate lives
Like a well gone dry from all the years gone byWhen I sit back and open my eyes
I see we're living two separate lives
Like we're trying to hide from the roller coaster rideIts hard to see through hearts that bleed
Its hard to see through hearts that bleed
Its hard to seeNow I dont like living this way
Its not right second guessing our fate
If you wanna say its a wreck
I'll understand it's for the bestIts hard to see through hearts that bleed
Its hard to see through hearts that bleed
It's hard to seeWhen I sit back and open my eyes
I see we're living two separate lives
Like a well gone dry from all the years gone byWhen I sit back and open my eyes
I see we're living two separate lives
Like we're trying to hide from the roller coaster rideIts hard to see through hearts that bleed
Its hard to see through hearts that bleed
Its hard to see
