

Boom Boom (Heartbeat) [feat. Rachel K Collier]

Ray Foxx

Another night another day
I'm moving loving every beat that's played
Suddenly I'm out of place
Distracted by an unfamiliar face
You say come on over
Let me take control
Of you and all of what we do
Confused I make every word you say
Confused you got a ride inside my head I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload I've gotta try
I can speak or think I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time Boom boom boom boom
Boom boom boom boom Surrounding our hand on my face
I like your subtle touch and your slow pace
Sound of you with sound of me
This perfect loss is happening naturally You say let me hold you
Let me take control
Of you and of what we do
I can feel your energy inside of me
Electricity explodes from out bodies I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload I've gotta try
I can speak or think I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time Boom boom boom boom
Boom boom boom boom I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload I've gotta try
I can speak or think I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time

You made my heart beat in and out of time
You made my heart beat in and out of time
I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload I've gotta try
I can speak or think I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time Boom boom boom boom
Boom boom boom boom You made my heart beat
You made my heart beat
You made my heart beat
You made my heart beat in and out of time
Boom boom boom boom
