

Headhunter (Xingu Hill)

Front 242

One, you lock the target, two, you bait the line
Three, you slowly spread the net and four, you catch the man
Freeze, shoot to kill or die, freeze, shoot to kill or die
Freeze, shoot to kill or die, freeze, shoot to kill or die Today he has no means, he's alone and anonymous
But written in his cells he has got the marks of the genius
I'm looking for this man to sell him to other men
To sell him to other men, to make us rich and famous One, you lock the target, two, you bait the line
Three, you slowly spread the net and four, you catch the man
One, you lock the target, two, you bait the line
Three, you slowly spread the net and four, you catch the man You catch the man, you catch the man
You catch the man, you catch the man
You catch the man, you catch the man
You catch the man, you catch the man I'm looking for this man to sell him to other men
To sell him to other men, for ten times his price at least
I'm looking for a man
Who's able to forget them to realize my aim, to realize my aim Freeze, shoot to kill or die, freeze, shoot to kill or die die
Freeze, shoot to kill or die, freeze, shoot to kill or die One, you lock the target, two, you bait the line
Three, you slowly spread the net and four, you catch the man
One, you lock the target, two, you bait the line
Three, you slowly spread the net and four, you catch the man
One, you lock the target, two, you bait the line
Three, you slowly spread the net and four, you catch the man
