Sob Story

The Mullets

Life's not been good for you. It's just not fair. You did nothing to deserve it. You did nothing at all. Sit back and watch. It turns from bad to worse. No matter how loud you cry it always hurts.
Boy I'm glad I'm not in your shoes.
How could things get any worse for you? You're so fucking alone. How could tings get any worse for you. I don't blame you. When you piss and moan. Everybody gets what you should've got. Everybody takes your opportunities. Everybody gets the breaks that belonged to you. Everybody takes your just desserts.
Life's not been good for you. It's just not fair. I've got some news for you. Nothing is fair. I wish there was a way. To make all beter. I pray for a way. To make you happy. 'Cause I'm sick and I'm tired. Of your whining, complaining, bitching, etc.
