

Moral Panic

Y La Bamba

Shadows of forsaken vows
This is wedding for my faults
A wedding for my faults
Representing my forgotten faults
My forgotten faults
This broken bread is my humble offering
Well I walk on these waters
This is my humble offering
Holy sister you were so brave
Teaching this girl just a mind to behave
You taught her right you gave her all
Holy sister you were so brave
Well I heard that the snow
It's ready to share her season
It's slow it's my flow
It's been a while since I've grown
Well it's nice
To have a life a life of tribulations
It's nice to have a life a life of tribulations
I am sure we are born just to make it

I am sure we are born just to make it

I am sure we are born just to make it
