Broken

The Goodwill

it will never be the same do as you do and remove yourself from the blame you're the best at that and you put it on my shoulders making me the one to name you could never accept you're wrong and all along you look at me with shame who do you think you are?
you used to say everytime i'd try to put you in your place, put you in your placeno matter what the time or the day you found a way to break me down again and make me feel like nothing and i know you don't get it and you probably never ever will but best friends aren't the ones to make the kill now i see your jobi'll never wish you harm for it will come back ten fold and i hope you one-day see what you do without mei'll never wish you harm for it will come back ten fold
what you do without meyou'll never succeed just like you said it one thing was to hold me back this psychic said and i think i found it and was looking around it for it was you who i wished it never to be the one is broken and will never be the samei'll never wish you harm for it will come back ten fold
and i hope you one-day see
what you do without memy best friend threw me away without a reason just to see how far i can fly well never look back too hard to take that just for the sake of remembering never look back
i hope i never see you againi'll never wish you harm for it will come back ten fold
and i hope you one-day see
what you do without mesing it do-do-do-do-do (repeated many times)
