

Circle of Friends

Better Than Ezra

Well, how the times have changed
Lookin' back, it seems so clear now
Everything you wanted in your life
Everything is certain Try and understand
Put a checklist on your wall
I am not what you think I should be But you're makin' amends
Through your circle of friends
And you're tryin' to fit me to their mold Yes, you're makin' amends
Through your circle of friends
And you're tryin' to fit me to their mold When you're tryin' to make decisions
Will you try to water this thing down?
Look up once in a while
You see it's not so clear The things you believe in
Are the things that's worth keepin'
You make a promise, stand right by your words But you're makin' amends
Through your circle of friends
And you're trying to fit me to their mold Yes, you're makin' amends
Through your circle of friends
And you're tryin' to fit me to their mold But you're makin' amends
Through your circle of friends
And you're trying to fit me to their mold Yes, you're makin' amends
Through your circle of friends
And you're tryin' to fit me to their mold Your circle of friends
Your circle of friends
Your circle of friends
