So In Love (Skit)

Chrisette Michele

Love is a powerful word
And you've been on my mind so much, lately
How can I say this?I'm always late to dinner days
Lookin' in her face
Marathon lovin' making but she win the race
I live a certain life
It's hard for me to feel them safe
Toni Montana money greet the guards at the gate
Greeks and Gurads on the line no need to state
Versace couches sandals, candles and matching plates
This picture better than Bosciach greatest endeavor
Kissing shorty in the rain but I'm making her wetterIt beats every single time that I see your cell number,
Showing up on my phone.
It beats every single time that you're near me,
I'm not ready yet just leave me alone.
I feel it deep in my veins, It's trying to say it's okay
But I ain't ready to go.
Without my permission, my heart is on a mission
It's got a mind of it's own.I say no,
And my heart just goes
With no control
So I'm trying to flow with it.
I'm so gone
And It shouldn't have told me,
Never should of told my heart.
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
Never of have told my heart
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
And my heart is saying
Boom boom clap
Boom boom clapAnd my heart is saying
Boom boom clap
Boom boom clap (I never should of told my heart)
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
(I'm so in love)
Pitter pitter, patter patter
Everything is scatter, scattered
Something is the matter with me
Boom like the radio,

Loud like a stereo,
This is how my heart beats
It's like a broken record, but I can't eject it,
Feels like it's on repeat.
I got a new confession
Loves my new obsession
My heart's talking to me
It said, boom boom boomI say no,
And my heart just goes
With no control
So I'm trying to flow with it.
I'm so gone
And It shouldn't have told me,
Never should of told my heart.
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
Never should have told my heart
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
And my heart is saying
Boom boom clap
Boom boom clapAnd my heart is saying
Boom boom clap
Boom boom clap (I never should of told my heart)
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
(I'm so in love)I'm chilling court side Jordan six rings
You know we court side till we get a six rings
We both on common ground it ain't a big thing
But when we come around they make it a big thing
Still on the block in that drop chicken box
They askin' what that is, is that a different from Watch?
When I'm in stunt mode I got to let the city watch
Oh it's the clear core jet to a chili spotI-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
Never should of told my heart
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
And my heart is saying
Boom boom clap
Boom boom clapAnd my heart is saying
Boom boom clap
Boom boom clap (never should of told my heart)
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
(I'm so in love)
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love
(I'm so in love)
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love (never should of told my heart)
Boom boom clap
Boom boom clapAnd my heart is saying

Boom boom clap
Boom boom clap (I'm so in love)
I-I-I'm so-o-o-o in love (never should of told my heart)
Should of kept it from my heart
