Never Leave a Job Half Done

Pedro the Lion

Blood stains on the carpet
Blood stains on my hands
Drag her toward the kitchen
Hide the evidenceOh the toil a lie can bring
That quitters never know
Lies can be the perfect things
If they never showCrisis posed a question
Just beneath the skin
The virtue in my veins reply
Quitters never winShe almost ruined everythingOh the toil a lie can bring
That quitters never know
Lies can be the perfect things
If they never show
