Sense of Insanity (Radio Edit)

Blackfield

Mother, have you seen the world today? The shooting all over town Are you senile? I'm not the one you prayed for It doesn't matter, I'm still aliveI was walking on the clouds You've got to be brave if you want to have crowds Dreams guide me to the mountain I was standing like a priest with his ancient Bible I was preaching the sense of insanity Brothers, let's get out to the streets Sure there's something you want to say They won't hear you like they never did All your heroes ran away I was walking on the clouds You've got to be brave if you want to have crowds Dreams guide me to the mountain I was standing like a priest with his ancient Bible I was preaching the sense of insanityDreams guide me to the mountain I was standing like a priest with his ancient Bible I was preaching the sense of insanity Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
