Sandraâ€™s Smile

Blood Orange

"Who taught you to breathe, then took away your speech,
Made you feel so loved, then shook your hand with gloves?
You watched her pass away, the words she said weren't faint.
Closed our eyes for a while, but I still see Sandra's smile.Can you see it in my face?
Had enough for today.It's hard for me to stay in place unless I force myself awake.
Look, an hour ago, I read Sybrina's quote.
I mean, why should she forgive?
D'we lose you if, we don't?"
