Executive Slacks

I saw you in the cinema
You had no arms or legs
I had to put you in the seat
Cuz you kept falling down
I let some runners buy your car
And drive it to the suburb
_____o
And watch it day and night

I saw you in the grocery store
Buying milk and cheese
I had to put you in the cart
Cuz you kept falling down
I listen to you while you tank
And drive into the streets
You shoot the people that you see
Cuz theyâ€™re not the same color as you
