

Prison Break

Matt Baker

I could never say no
Making my veins glow
    Take another one
    Try to let the pain go
    I know it's killing me
    It's not my destiny
    I float in outer space
    I'm in another place
    Then I black out
    Wake up and I'm so afraid
    This burden's suffocating
    By a thread I'm barely hanging
All the nights, and all the lies you sold to me
    I sacrificed and lost a time I'll never see
    You stared and you kicked me as I crawl
    Watch me stand when you thought I'd fall
    I'll make this prison break
    Suffering the same road
    Stuck in the same clothes
    When I try to run
    Hunt me in my cage closed
    My world is twist and tattered

My heart is beat and battered
    Even when I'm shaken
    About to cave in
    My faith rises
    I can feel my spirit raging
    I pray and someone hears me
    Today I'm done believing
All the nights, and all the lies you sold to me
    I sacrificed and lost a time I'll never see
    You stared and you kicked me as I crawl
    Watch me stand when you thought I'd fall
    I'll make this prison break
    I won't keep walking blind
    I won't let down my eyes
    You won't fool me this time
    Take control of my life

Manifest in the light
I won't lay down and die!
All the nights, and all the lies you sold to me
I sacrificed and lost a time I'll never see
You stared and you kicked me as I crawl
Watch me stand when you thought I'd fall
I'll make this prison break
