

Last Man Standing (East)

Stephen Kellogg

Gonna choose sunlight
Gonna drink wine
Bound to win a few fights, before my time
Gonna make love now
Ain't the future bright
Gonna be the last man standing tonight
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man standing tonight Gonna make a difference
Gonna speak my mind
Even when my nerve fails
Even in the dark times
Gonna count the blessings
Celebrate the wins
Gonna be the last man standing Gonna be a good friend
Gonna be a family guy
Gonna pour my heart out till the day after I die
And when I am an angel, looking for a landing
Gonna be the last man standing, yeah
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man standing tonight
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man standing tonight
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man
Gonna be the last man standing tonight
Gonna be the last man standing tonight
