In a Week

Worn-Tin

In A Week

(1st Verse)

Help me out, my mind is gone

The body and thoughts getting dim

It makes me sad, when were together

And everything reminds you of him

Goodbye memories, See you never

I guess these things just stay the same

(Chorus 1)

And now that I feel myself falling Iâ€™m just waiting

Here writing all of these songs about you

Like old worn out sneakers

That sit by the bleachers and I...

Guess that I could just wait a week

To see your face in front of me

(2nd Verse)

The way you walk and the way you speak

Keeps my mind at ease

I think about you every night and day

I guess its only a week

Soon Iâ€™ll get tired while my own

Words catch fire, following promises Iâ€™ll Keep

(Chorus 2)

Just to hold you in my arms

You donâ€™t have to worry

Iâ€™ll Keep all those nightmares away

Like running round daytime

To hope that you sleep soundly

And I guess ill just have to wait a week

To see your face in front of me.

Lyrics Submitted by Chimpy

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/