Dirty Beating Heart

Luxuria

I copy love really badly more often than not
All too little I've wanted an awful lot
So I keep blowing you up, you keep coming apart
It's this dirty big, dirty great, dirty beating heartDirty beating heart, I love my love for you
Dirty beating heart, string me along
Dirty beating heart, you are like naked cable
You're stale, unstable
Dirty beating heart, my carouselI'm on the trail of vapors, down a fancy colonnade
Where ghosts of stories parade
Accept this wanton homage, I love my love for you
I am falling off a mountain without a viewDirty beating heart, I love my love for you
Dirty beating heart, string me along
Dirty beating heart, you are like naked cable
You're stale, unstable
Dirty beating heart, my carouselDirty beating heart
(I really need to carry on)
Dirty beating heart
(I know all too well)Dirty beating heart
(Wanton homage, it's given gladly)
(You copy love so badly)
Dirty beating heart
(How you string me along)Dirty beating heart
My dirty beating heart
My dirty beating heart
My dirty beating heart
My dirty beating heartLove my dirty beating, dirty beating
Dirty beating, dirty beating heart
