Growing Silent

No Warning

I won't break the silence just 'cause you ask me
I won't change anything for anybodySomewhere out there
I know there's something for me
I try and listen to my own words
They don't make senseI know exactly what I'm thinking
The words don't come out
If they did, would it matter?
Would you listen?I won't break the silence just 'cause you ask me
I won't change anything for anybodyIf I'm quiet, I'm thinking
Don't ask what about?
There's a reason for the silence
And why the words don't come out
If they did, would it matter?
Would you fucking listen?Left alone for how much longer
It doesn't kill me, I feel stronger
Left alone for how much longer
It doesn't kill me, I feel stronger
