

Sleepless Sonata

Andy Ferguson

Sleepless, why wont you lose your ways i know we've tried, and i know we've tried, but i just cant keep loving you. Sleepless, wont you just signal the fire courtesan you, you know its dead before blue. Listen close, i hear them calling your name (take me, take me) its crazy how, i hear you call,.. oh you're, you're calling them too. Steady now, i know I'm, im losing it too. the nightmares come back, and i just cant keep on , loving you. Listen close, i hear them calling your name (take me, take me)
its crazy how, i hear you call,.. oh you're, you're calling them too. As i sit, on the edge, of the bed, knowing you wont be coming home tonight Take it back, could it be that i'm choosing a fantasy, take a breath, play with this, don't you see the knife you hide is showing through beauty gone bad, do i deserve all this, from you.*bridge The moonlight whispers sadness through the shades, the shades offer blindness to the truth the truth distorts comfort to my soul, but this time its more than i can bare, and ill be gone before you can return, next time ill be a little more prepared, and i know they said that this would come to pass, well i just hope, that you,, you feel it too. Sleepless, what am i here to do? There's no hope in loving you.. Listen close, i hear them calling your name (take me, take me) its crazy how, i hear you call,.. oh you're, you're calling them too.
