Make It Out Alive

Hanson

The more I love you, the more I'm lovin' you
The more I need you, the more I'm needing to.
I surrender, what I thought I knew
One look in your eyes, I know my games are through You've been holding on
And I've been holding back
We may not make it out alive
What does it matter if you're here by my side?
We may not make it out alive, what does it matter?
It's just a matter of time
Reservation, is sneaking up on me
Was I mistaken, to let you get to me?
I'm overtaken, in ways I've never knew
So please don't break me, we've still got a ways to go
We're still holding on
Just hoping for the best

We may not make it out alive
What does it matter if you're here by my side?
We may not make it out alive, what does it matter?
It's just a matter of time
It's just a matter of time
These memories, that we've got
May not amount to much, but I'm so glad we've got 'em
We cannot be, what we're not
But it's too late to get out or shed a tear for doubt
We're just holding on, just bracing for the worst
We may not make it out alive (we may not make it out alive)
What does it matter if you're here by my side?
We may not make it out alive, what does it matter?
It's just a matter of time
It's just a matter of time
