Rollin' Highway Blues

Ryan Bingham

If I had the chance to hold you again in my cryin' eyes
I'd take a chance and fall in love with you
But I know I couldn't have one more dance
To bring you back to the rollin' highway blues'Cause I'm back to fallin' down again, my friends
I don't have any more luck to lose
I wish the train would haul away every card I choose
Bring you back to the rollin' highway bluesAnd darlin', don't regret leavin' a drunken fool
And darlin', don't respect a man that don't care for you
Never go back to the rollin' highway blues'Cause every night I fall asleep with whiskey in my mind
Hopin' that I might wake up next to you
But I know I'll wake alone in the mornin' dew
And head back out on the rollin' highway bluesAnd darlin', don't regret leavin' a drunken fool
And darlin', don't respect a man that don't care for you
Never go back to the rollin' highway blues
Darlin', don't regret leavin' a drunken fool
Never go back to the rollin' highway blues

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/