

Killa

LeCrae

killa, killa, (repeat)

Uh,

I know it's going to kill me but I just can't let it go

And the taste so appealing got a grip upon my soul

These honey dip lies mesmerize me

Pride's got its crooked fingers twisted all inside in me

Fools walk the path I'm on, never to be seen again

Sipping on seduction while we eating on some secret sin

(No one will ever know) says the whisper in my ear

And I know I should be over this, but I ain't seeing clear

And I aint leaving here, unless somebody save me

Walking to my grave letting evilness enslave me

Evil looks so lovely covered in her lace of lies

And the silky smooth seduction just manipulates my mind

Her fabrical fabrication is fueling my fascination

While I'm intoxicated she starts her assassination

I'm losing all my honor and my years to the merciless

Giving all my life away but I'm just so immersed in this (killa)

Hook:

Baby this is innocent (Killa) it won't even hurt a little bit (Killa)

I'm only here for your benefit (killa) I'm your every wish (Killa)

Come on and let me in (killa), baby this is innocent (Killa)

And it won't even hurt a little bit (Killa) Close your eyes and let's get lost tonight

(Killa) Would it be alright? You'll see (killa)

Her feet go down to DEATH, so don't let her consume you

Even though her heart is black, her exterior's beautiful

She'll take your life away, strip away your joy

Pretends that she gon build you up but she's just gon destroy you

My friends fell low, when they was so high

Got me running scared of myself, no lie

And I know I'm gon die, I tried cold turkey

But when I'm feeling worthy, Satan's sure trying to merk me

I'm doing myself dirty, flirting with whats perverted

I should follow the word but I guess I'd rather be murdered

Excuse me I mean martyred 'cause I'm killing myself

My sin conceived a baby, and we gon name it death, breath

(Gasps) -Taker, she take my breath away

Replaces it with poison and I'm so swept away

I need some bread today hope I wake up

Before they start my wake up somebody make me break up
I'm dating a (Killa)
