

Two Weeks Notice

Fantasia

The love that me and you shared expired
So there will be no renewing our contracts, no, no
And I ain't got nothing since I've been hired
So I can't take you back, oh And I done gave love and got no commission (Not even a little)
So give me one reason why I should stay here
(Why I should stay)
I thought compared to all the other guys you were different
But I cried the same old tears
And baby, baby I can't take it, I can't do it, no This is my two week notice
I resign my position 'cause you ain't treating me right
And I've been working on the job just busting my ass
Pleasing you everyday and night
I get no raises or no benefits to stay with this establishment
I'm gone, this is my two week notice
(I don't want you back, I don't want you back) I might be a fool if I took you back boy
(If I took you back)
Even though I love you I can't be that dumb, oh
'Cause I can do bad all by myself, I don't need no help
Today's over and done, woah
([Incomprehensible], I don't wanna be here, no, no, no) It seems I'm better off if I leave you now
Maybe you would recognize the good you have, hey
Ain't it a ashame that you took advantage of me A nd you should not be mad
(Shame, shame)
Hey, I don't want the job no more, see you hurting me This is my two week notice
I resign my position 'cause you ain't treating me right
I've been working on the job just busting my ass
Pleasing you everyday and night
I get no raises or no benefits to stay with this establishment
I'm gone, this is my two week notice
(I don't want you back, I don't want you back) Packing up and I'm walking out
No more stressing out 'cause it's over
I must be gone as we finished
Because I did my best now it's ended, oh Packing up and I'm walking out
No more stressing out 'cause it's over
Must be gone end of song
This is my two week notice, two week notice This is my two week notice
I resign my position 'cause you ain't treating me right

I've been working on the job just busting my ass
Pleasing you everyday and night
I get no raises or no benefits to stay with this establishment
I'm gone, this is my two week notice
(I don't want you back, I don't want you back)
