

One

India.arie

I've got this feeling that I need to express
Letting it out so you don't have to guess
I'm making myself vulnerable but you keep holding back so scared to let go
If you're looking for love then I think I could be the one, the one, the one

Tell me why you want to be so cruel
Acting like you don't feel the way that you do
We've got the strongest compatibility
I just want to explore the possibilities
But if you only want to play games with me I ain't the one, the one, the one

I ain't got a husband
You ain't got a wife
We two grown folks lets spend some together
Get to know me better, maybe share some laughter
It just might turn into happily ever after
You never know, I just might be the one, the one, the one

[Bridge]

I just be that special girl
The one that God made especially for you
I just might be that special girl
The one to make you happy
Just want to make you happy

I got a feeling that you just might be the one, the one, the one
