

Betty Blue

Mark Ayres

We're like two fingers of the same hand
The Hand of Fate writing on the sand
What does it matter
What does it mean
Can you see the difference
In the lines between
I'm gonna run away with you
Gonna run away into your eyes blue
I'm gonna run away with you
I'm gonna run away-into your eyes blue

We're like two fingers of the same hand
Beautiful strangers of the strange land
What does it matter
What does it mean
Can you feel the difference
And the passion between
I'm gonna run away with you
Gonna run away into your eyes blue
I'm gonna run away with you
Gonna run away into your eyes blue...
