Lies

Shed Seven

I know tomorrow won't be the same
I've seen the future and I saw who's to blame
Left nothing here for me
I've seen the future but I can't see you
I've seen throughEverything that you said I could say you're liar
Everything that you do I could say you could try
A little bit moreEvery day will be like the last
Who are you to think it will pass?
Take care of everything
I've seen the future but I can't see you
I've seen throughEverything that you said I could say you're liar
Everything that you do I could say you could try
A little bit more
