Still Sound (Cuetec Remix)

Toro y Moi

It's hard where you're living
Adding weight to make it balanced
Saying it could be too much
But he's clasping to his tieThere was a finer life when I was with my friends
And I could always see my family
That's what I still want now
Even if I'm here and I know they won't be waiting'Cause I don't want to be alone
No, I don't want to be here aloneWhile you're there give back a little more
The return could make you notice
That I'm thinking of a moment
And know it's still soundThere was a finer life when you were with us here
And we knew there was a next time
That's what I still want now
Even if I'm here and I think that you won't be waiting'Cause I don't want to be aloneIt's hard where you're living
It's hard where you're living
It's hard where you're living'Cause I don't want to be alone
No, I don't want to be here alone
