

Cut the Wheel

Echo Orbiter

You were right to distinguish
Real life from the one I live
Stranded somewhere in between right and wrong
I donâ€™t wanna live like this too long

Now that itâ€™s the end

Come to terms with quick decay
Everything in me is slain
Hereâ€™s to losing one more day
Thatâ€™s me over in the wings waiting for my next shot

Iâ€™m still looking for someone to blame
For jobs, children, marriage, inevitable death
You just might be the answer
To the question Iâ€™ve yet to ask

Iâ€™ve saved the best for last
