

The Upgrade, Pt. II

Slaves

The devil wears a white dress
Oh she cries for something better
Her tears never hit the ground
All she wants is something deeper

Left stranded
Still standing
Still standing
From the joy
It brings
From the joy

Just another drama queen for the masses
Fading in the limelight
Just another drama queen for the masses
Girl you do it all right
Give up the ghost
Give up the ghost
Time to put it all to rest
Dig your own grave
Oh you're dying to impress

I poured my soul into it all
And that's more than I can say for yourself
A man who desires revenge
Should dig two fucking graves

Just another drama queen for the masses
Fading in the limelight
Just another drama queen for the masses
Girl you do it all right
Give up the ghost
Give up the ghost
Time to put it all to rest
Dig your own grave

I want you all to myself

But I barely made it out alive

I've got nothing to lose

I've got nothing

I've got nothing to lose

Let's give the devil his dues

Let's give that motherfucker his dues

Just another drama queen for the masses

Fading in the limelight

Just another drama queen for the masses

Girl you do it all right

Give up the ghost

Give up the ghost

Time to put it all to rest

Dig your own grave
