

Disrespectful

Vivian Green

I told you
And you heard me
I said, "No."
I said, "No."
You said you didn't understand (no)
Why I can't go there with you
Why I can't do that with you
But I feel your arms around me
When I open my eyes in the morning
Pulled me into your world
All through the night
And I feel so violated I don't wanna feel anything
Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that
You can't make me love
Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that Brought me breakfast in bed this morning
It was exactly how I like it
Massaged my back and shoulders
And it felt so right
I see what your'e doing
You're there every morning
When I open my eyes
(Open my eyes) x3
You're just not listening
Tell me why
(Tell me why) x3
I just feel violated I don't wanna feel anything
Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that
You can't make me love
Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that Maybe this could be nice if I let it go and really try
Maybe it could feel right if I let
But do I want it?
Am I frontin oooh
'Cuz I do like this good lovin'
Maybe we could be like in the movies
Where they find love when they weren't looking

And I start cooking for you every night
It might be nice
It might be
It might be nice I don't wanna feel anything
Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that
No, you can't make me love
Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that Why can't you respect that
Why can't you respect that Read more:
