I'm Sorry

Eva Avila

If I could turn to you,
You know I am dying to
The night could turn to day

But all the days just seem so long,
So where did I go wrong
There's more I have to say.

I made a mistake, I am human you know.
What would it take,
I know I've got no more chances all
I am on my knees, I'm sorry

I wallow out in pain, I swallow my cry.
I swallow the sea of tears.
You cry for me I'm sorry

Last night how was the sleep,
And you were next to me.
I saw he turned the smile.
But all I opened my eyes,
And in this bed if lies
I feel my own heart breaking.
I made a mistake. I am human you know
What would it take
I know I've got no more chances all
I am on my knees, I'm sorry

I wallow out in pain, I swallow my cry.
I swallow the sea of tears.
You cry for me I'm sorry

All is on my mind
A million reasons why
I cant believe your love has passed me by

I made a mistake. I am human you know
What would it take
I know I've got no more chances all

I am on my knees, I'm sorry

I wallow the pain, I swallow my cry.
I swallow the sea of tears.
That you cry for me I'm sorry
