Another Strange Me

Blind Guardian

A seed of doubt
It exists and it grows
A glimpse of life from somewhere deep within
Awake and understandIs there anyone else here?
Somebody screaming, please help me
Find out now that I am not dreaming
Welcome to my damnation, here it comes the real meI didn't know, I couldn't hear the answer
My mind was blank, I should have known
Hold it back but somehow
There is someone else, another stranger me, another stranger meThat's when the ice will break awayI can't get out here, anymore
'Cause none of my keys fit the door
There's fear and anger, hate and love
I must confess, it's out of handIt's cynic, it's cynic
Still cynic, all my laughter
It's cynic, just manic
It's cynic, all her laughterIf there's anyone in, it soon will be over
We'll burn out, soul's aflame
We're on our own now, give up you cruel invasion
You're insane, I'll show youI didn't know, I couldn't hear the answer
My mind was blank, I should have known
Hold it back but somehow
There is someone else, another stranger meOut and gone, can't resist
Cold and sore, the bolt of pain
Keeps ripping through my head
I can take no moreDon't tell anyone else but I do not believe her
She hates me, cloud my mind
She's a deceiver, I can feel cruel vibrations
Would you like to meet me?I didn't know, I couldn't hear the answer
My mind was blank, I should have known
Hold it back but somehow
There is someone else, another stranger meAnother stranger me
