

The Rescue

Goodtimes Goodtimes

[Verse 1] I'm running backwards in the rain

Got my hand up for a taxi

I finally got her name

Then we slipped into the backseat

I whisper, "are you okay?"

she nods her head with feeling

I could see the pain and I can not explain how

[Chorus] I am captivated by the way you look tonight

and I've seen what you've been into

So I will never cross the line

I won't tell you any lies

I was sent here for the rescue

[Verse 2] She couldn't see past his stare, when desire took them over

With a quick and simple prayer she cried, "God bring this to closure"

"I can not take this anymore and I know that what I'm waiting for is so much bigger, so much better, get me out, please deliver"

So I'm here breaking down your door

Calling out your name

I want to take away the pain

You know I'm here like I was before

Screaming out your name

Waiting for the change

[Chorus] I am captivated by

The way you look tonight

And I've seen what you've been into

So I will never cross the line

I won't tell you any lies

I was sent here for the rescue

[Choir] Leave your burden, weak and weary, I will lead you home

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
