Vivid Love

Luke De-Sciscio

To a Gossamer Rose
I will as vivid as you are
Let this flow be as vivid as you are
My Gossamer Rose

Rings a gossamer bell
Though dulcimers as well
In every birds wing then and now
The wind that churns the turning mill
The soil singed could reach me out
Climbing will in blacks and greens
If only for to taste the wine
My Gossamer Rose

To a gossamer rose in your eye

It's in the courting of her eye
The cards that pass from hand to hand
In wily steps on Winter's shore
Supermarkets
Bedroom floors
Does Summer pressing on my mind
If only for to me remind
In rattles at the cellar doors
I want you
Come find me naked
I'm only heavy in the chest below
A Gossamer Rose

In your eye
If only for to vivid love
Caught for time
If only for to vivid love
Bones are chalk
If only for to vivid walk
Score the road
If only for to vivid know
