

Lookin Out My Window

Kottonmouth Kings

Hello... (whoowwhoowhowho)...
I've been hoping... hoping... hoping
I keep waiting... waiting... waiting
Waiting on my life
for a time when I could say
Hello... (whoowwhoowhowho)...
I've been hoping... hoping... hoping
I've been waiting... waiting... waiting
Waiting on my life
for a time when I could say...
I'm looking out my fish bowl watching time in life pass me by Now I'm wondering why
and how I get in this place and situation
I wish I could grow some wings and fly out of this dream
Cause it's a nightmare
All I do is go to the motions
Without a purpose or a person next to me so I'm holding Onto hoping, prayer, or wish and a dream
That one day I'd get out of here and finally be free, free, fre...
Now I'm starrin out the window
To see what is out there
Is anything out there?
Is there anything out there for me?
Now I'm starrin out the window
To see who is out there
Is anyone out there?
Is there anyone listening?
I'm starrin out this window
Hello world it's me!Hello it's me,
I'm the shadow of laughter
Hello it's me
I'm the walking disaster
Hello it's me,
on the edge of the raptors
With a rope and ladder

you know it really don't matter to me I've been hiding inside myself
Lying and trying to defile myself
Want everybody out there is going for sell
I'm slowly falling seeking down closer to hell
Hello... hello... hello... Now I'm starrng out the window
To see what is out there
Is anything out there?
Is there anything out there for me?
Now I'm starrng out the window
To see who is out there
Is anyone out there?
Is there anyone listening?
I'm starrng out this window
Hello world it's me! I want to know what is like to being one?
in a place real far
Yeah far from here, far from home, far from everything I know
I just want to move away, plant my seed and make it grow
Watch it blossom in the sun, beautiful and chillax
Create my home; waiting future's
Get away from this cloud
Right now I hurt searching for something that's right
So until my time comes I keep on hoping tonight will be my last night... What what... Now I'm starrng out the window
To see what is out there
Is anything out there?
Is there anything out there for me?
Now I'm starrng out the window
To see who is out there
Is anyone out there?
Is there anyone listening?
I'm starrng out this window
Hello world it's me!
