

Let's Fall To Pieces Together

George Strait

Pardon me, you left your tears on the jukebox
And I'm afraid they got mixed up with mine
I don't mean to pry, it's just that I
Noticed you goin' out of your mind
It looks like were two of a kind[Chorus]
Let's fall to pieces together
Why should we both fall apart
Let's fall to pieces together
Right here in each other's arms Alone is much better together
When the worst is still yet to come
So let's share the rest, of the tears that are left
From two hearts that just came undone
Why should we go crazy alone
