Interesting Times

Chester French

I can't believe I'm going to die one dayCant believe we'll all be goneCant believe that I won't be 25 for much longer nowIt's weird this room is going to disappearAnd that someone lived here beforeIt's weird I live in four dimensions but there might be morebut it's all but it's allbeautiful
beautiful
beautifulthere's nothing left to sayyou're beautiful you're beautiful there's nothing left to saymay you live in interesting times may you live in interesting times[verse 2] I can't believe this all came from dust and all of some people I lovecan't believe that I might just be projecting a dream and I hope this finds you when things are good, and I hope that you're not facing loss, and I hope, yea I hope you find someone out there who loves you a lotbut it's all
beautifulthere's nothing else to sayyou're beautiful
you're beautiful
there's nothing else to saymay you live in interesting times may you live in interesting times
