Carcass

Numbing torturous troubadours
Of this melodious dirge
Ostentatious triumphalism
Impressarios of despairVirtuosos of the visceral
Artisans of the morgue
Wretched morbid euphemisms
Orating grisly tongueThis is the way of all flesh that will decay
The cycle of death exhausted well and truly plagued
A vacuous malaise for which you studiously cater
The lowest common neonate denominatorGerminated spores are sown
Plagiarised as your own
But it's you we've outgrown
Stillborn at birthArtistically moribund
Soulless ghosts of the underground
By the past you are bound
Stunted at birthDulled, blunted, low tensile dearth metal
Melodists of soullessness
Harmonisers of the converse
In heartless exuberance
Impotent vain facile notations
Purveyors of rottenness
Deadpan putrescent prose
A musical spent blunt force trauma
The butcher's cur attenuatedThis is the way of all flesh that will decay
The cycle of death exhausted well and truly played
A terminal malaise that you so feverishly savour
The lowest common puerile denominatorThe fruits of perfection shown
Assimulated & decomposed
But it's you that's been outgrown
Stillborn at birthNon hardened, brittle, untempered, deadThis is the way of all flesh that will decay
The cycle of death unbroken - stunted at birth
A vacuous malaise well and truly plagued
-the lowest common denominator
-stillborn at birthDulled, blunted, low tensile dearth metalArtistically moribund
Soulless ghosts of the underground
By our own past we are bound
Stillborn at birth - D.O.A.
