

Desire Wire

Cindy Bullens

Is this day wasted
Or am I just feeling blue
The rain keeps falling
And I just keep missing youGot disconnected
As I tried to overcome
Losing your number
Was the worst I could've doneSo won't you call on my Desire Wire
I got to get a message to you
To get me on the line
So I can tell you that I love you still
And I need you to be mine
I know I hurt you, yeah
Well, I stepped right out of line
But it's not fair
If you won't let me apologizeBabe, you got to call on my Desire Wire
I got to get a message to you
To get me on the line
So I can tell you that I love you still
And I need you to be mineI've been everywhere
Searching for your number
There's no place left to look
It's a mystery
I can only pray
That you'll let me get back on the hookHoney, I'm just about to go insane
If I don't talk to you
My tears are gonna fall like the rain
You got to call on my Desire Wire
I got to get a message to you
To get me on the line
So I can tell you that I love you still
And I need you to be mine
