

This is Your Anthem

Twiztid

This is your anthem
This is your saving grace
Turn up your music
Welcome to a brand new hate
This is your anthem
Time to take your life back
Turn up your music
This is your Anthem!

Look into the eyes of a people who'd rather die than live long enough to fall victim to suicide
They've been stripped of all their pride and they're shells of they're former selves
Become captive to the weakness too afraid to ask for help
It don't reach no one's ears, they're opinion, they never speak,
They persist to treat the world like a dream as if they're asleep
They're convinced that everyone is above and rightly beneath is where they belong
And always were and will remain to be
Never believe they're eyes are too closed to ever see
Like Cadillacs all they see is the way to reality
You'll never know cause you'll never be An on the inside always outside lookin in
And that's fake and too pretendin' you know it just how it feels Cause it's always the phony ones tellin' you keep it real
And it's always the lonely ones that's beggin you not to go
But life is too fast to live that shit slow

This is your anthem
This is your saving grace
Turn up your music
Welcome to a brand new hate
This is your anthem
Time to take your life back
Turn up your music
This is your Anthem!

I'm disgraceful and hateful spreading evil like wings of an angel
The 2nd coming of a saved soul
And I got problems by the payload
I swear to god I must be related to Failing and Betrayal
You want a change, I got a faceful!

But your still so afraid of anything nothin to say so
I get so mad I wanna strangle
I've had enough from the same old
The industry is nothin but a re-run of a game show
I refrain from entertaining the lame folk
But if your lookin for something different I'm what you came for
I might crush her on your brain go insane like Violent J and Shaggy 2 Dope with my veins
I can't help it if everybody around me is buildin it from the ground
And we rollin in like an army with the strength of a million juggalos standing beside me and you really gotta look in the darkness to find me

This is your anthem
This is your saving grace
Turn up your music
Welcome to a brand new hate
This is your anthem
Time to take your life back
Turn up your music
This is your Anthem!

(Anthem!)

This is your anthem
This is your saving grace
Turn up your music (aaaahhh!!!)
Welcome to a brand new hate
This is your anthem
Time to take your life back
Turn up your music (aaaahhh!!!)
This is your Anthem!
