Hands

Donna Lewis

under the red rose
under the yellow
under the open skycome here come to me
come sleep
lie with me
and watch the graceful little greenedged animals enchant youI could be here with you if only you would free your way through I could be safe with you if only you would free your way throughcome lay your hands on me now lay your words on me now my lovelay your words on me now
my loveinside
glistening
this joy of adventure
crystal on crystal
surrounds you it's peaceful oh I wonder if
seven roses later
was a fairy taleI could be here with you.....
