Hands

Donna Lewis

under the red rose under the yellow under the open skycome here come to me come sleep lie with me and watch the graceful little greenedged animals enchant youI could be here with you if only you would free your way through I could be safe with you if only you would free your way throughcome lay your hands on me now lay your words on me now my lovelay your words on me now lay your hands on me now my loveinside glistening this joy of adventure crystal on crystal surrounds you it's peaceful oh I wonder if seven roses later was a fairy taleI could be here with you.....
