

Live to Labor

Atreyu

[Intro: Alex Varkatzas]

Yeah[Verse 1: Alex Varkatzas]

In the cold dead of night

Wrest your self from sleep

To face the morning light

So Pathologically

Trapped in a system that breaks originality

In favor of bland safe marketabilityMiddle of a long day

Turns into working long weeks

What are we doing this for

Whose fucking stocks will increase

At times we're all just little junkies and whores

Clawing scratching unattainable dreams[Chorus: Brandon Saller and Alex Varkatzas]

How much can we take

To labor and to break

Our backs against the system's walls

I say smash it fucking down

In control of our fate

We produce and we create

The guns from which we sell our souls

I say smash it fucking all[Verse 2: Alex Varkatzas]

How ironic is the plan of our lives

Working doubles to survive, to get by

A passionless job in a meaningless lie

I despise being trite to get by

What do you offer?

What can you create?

What do you contribute?

What profit is made?[Chorus: Brandon Saller and Alex Varkatzas]

How much can we take

To labor and to break

Our backs against the system's walls

I say smash it fucking down

In control of our fate

We produce and recreate

The cost for which we sell our souls

I say smash it fucking all[Bridge: Alex Varkatzas]

I say smash it fucking down

Smash it fucking down[Chorus: Brandon Saller and Alex Varkatzas]

How much can we take
To labor and to break
Our backs against the system's walls
I say smash it fucking down
In control of our fate
We produce and we create
The guns from which we sell our souls
I say smash it fucking all[Outro: Alex Varkatzas]
I say smash it fucking all
