

X Offender

Blondie

I saw you standing on the corner
You looked so big and fine
I really wanted to go out with you
So when you smiled, I laid my heart on the line
You read me my rights and then you said
"Let's go" And nothing more
I thought of my nights, and how they were
They were filled with I know you wouldn't go
You'd watch my heart burst then you'd step in
I had to know so I asked
You just had to laugh
We sat in the night
With my hands cuffed at my side
I look at your life and your style
Wanted nothing more I know you wouldn't go
You'd watch my heart burst then you'd step in
I had to know so I asked
You just had to laugh
Walking the line, you were a marksman
Told me that law, like wine is ageless, public defender
You had to admit
You wanted the love of a sex offender I know you wouldn't go
You'd watch my heart burst then you'd step in
I had to know so I asked
You just had to laugh
My vision in blue
I call you from inside my cell
And in the trial, you were there
With your badge and rubber boots I think all the time how
I'm going to perpetrate love with you
And when I get out
There's no doubt I'll be sex offensive to you
